

Who Beat LSU? Try This Answer

A year ago, Dale Brown said this to me:

"You want to know when I think LSU basketball will have arrived? When I come to Lexington, pick up a paper and read in Rick Bailey's column that LSU is so loaded they'll beat Kentucky in spite of their spastic coach."

Dale Brown, the LSU coach, will have a long wait.

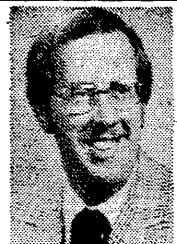

But Dale Brown had other things on his mind Monday night after his team lost to Kentucky 85-71.

Among other things, Dale Brown said this to me: "Don't be bush league with a question like that. I'm not gonna honor that question with an answer."

What I had done was wonder if perhaps Brown's coaching, or lack of it, had been, in part, to blame for his team's loss.

Such a response was not

This Sporting Life

With Rick Bailey

by Hall) and you didn't have the guts to throw him out! You let an assistant coach bat the ball halfway across the floor!"

Copeland: "You'll be reported for coming in here like this!"

Enter a campus policeman.

Brown: "Get your arm off of me, fella! These guys (the police) are as bush league as they (the officials, I presume) are!"

The incident with the officials after the game is unfortunate. Brown will probably be reprimanded by the Southeastern Conference. Which may not be so bad after all because the SEC is hardly an imposing organization when it comes to punishment.

But the flamboyant Brown, with a fine sense of theatrics, laid the groundwork early.

"Look at that!" Brown directed the officials at a sideline confrontation. "He's (Hall) intimidating the crowd. Call a 'T' (technical foul) on him!"

This came with 17:29 left in the game. With 6:47 showing, the refs called a "T" on Brown himself. By then, the LSU coach had his coat off. He flung it to midcourt which was worth another "T."

Brown was reasonably restrained until he entered "no coach's land" after the game.

Too bad, really. Such things go with the profession. You get few breaks on the road. You just hope they even up at home. A coach must live with this.

He must live with the officiating, too. His job is often at stake and he deserves the best possible. What he gets is seldom that. But the coach must compensate.

But things are not well with LSU. Once upon a time, the Tigers were 7-1. Even nationally ranked briefly. Now the Tigers are 9-8, 2-7 midway through the SEC season.

These are not easy days for Brown. He's under the worst kind of pressure—self-imposed. He wants desperately to win but he's losing instead. And his crusade was not helped Monday night.

Sports Journal

FOOTBALL
Ron Blackledge, offensive line coach at the University of Kentucky the last three years, has accepted the post of offensive coordinator at Princeton University.

GOLF
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Dale Hayes of South Africa fired a three-under-par 69 to beat fellow countryman John Fourie by three strokes in an 18-hole playoff and win the South African Open golf tournament.

BASEBALL
BOCA RATON, Fla. — Victor Amaya, a student at the University of Michigan, upset veteran Clark Graebner 6-2 to highlight first-round in a $50,000 independent Players Association tournament.

NEW YORK — Fred Lindstrom, a 311 lifetime hitter; Roger Connor, who played between 1900 and 1902; and former umpire Cal Hubbard were named to the Hall of Fame by baseball's Veterans' Committee.

LSU Coach Dale Brown Flings His Coat To Mid-Court In Outburst Of Frustration During The UK-LSU Game

Staff Photo by E. Martin Jessee

The Lexington Leader

Sports

Lexington, Ky., Tuesday, February 3, 1976 A-6

Phillips Unstoppable Underneath

Cats' Comeback Clips LSU

By RICK BAILEY
Leader Staff Writer

Consider the second half of Monday night's Kentucky-Louisiana State brouhaha at Memorial Coliseum.

Consider what Kentucky did to emerge with an 85-71 Southeastern Conference victory.

Consider such things as:

- The Wildcats shooting 54.8 per cent. At the same time, LSU made nine of 36 shots for 25 per cent. That should tell you something.

- The Wildcats continuing their board domination 33-19. For the game, the margin was 56-29. That should tell you something.

- The Wildcats getting 23 points from center Mike Phillips in the second half. This meant he finished with 35 points, three more than Kenny Higgs, LSU's brilliant guard from Owensboro. Phillips also ripped off the boards for 20 rebounds. Which was four more than teammate Jack Givens. Which was twice as many as any Tiger could manage.

That should tell you something.

So afterward, LSU coach Dale Brown blamed officials Reggie Copeland and Ken Lauderdale for his team's seventh SEC defeat in nine games.

Brown didn't say that in so many words. Instead, he tried to get the press to do his blaming for him. After accusing the officials in their dressing room. After being removed from the area by campus state policemen.

"I'd like to comment, fellows," the fiery Brown said, trying to control himself. "But you can read my feelings. It was obvious what happened so I'm not gonna comment."

Brown did praise Joe Hall, his counterpart.

"I congratulated him for winning the game," Brown said. "Joe should be congratulated, more so than his players. Joe Hall won the game."

Brown, of course, was referring to his opinion that

Hall—and the UK crowd—intimidated the officials.

Hall, of course, said, "I could match every complaint he had. After the game, he (Brown) was complaining generally about the officials and I was generally agreeing with him."

Hall could cite a five-point play by Higgs with 4:19 left in the first half that gave LSU a 34-21 lead—its biggest edge of the evening.

Higgs made a layup and was fouled excessively by Larry Johnson. That was one technical. Hall protested too much. That was another. The dispute was whether the Tigers' Lionel Green was guilty of offensive basket interference on the play. If so, the basket would have been voided. Not so, said the officials.

With 6:47 left in the game, Brown got "even." After earlier berating Copeland and Lauderdale for being intimidated by Hall and the crowd, he said too much. One "T." He then threw his plaid sport coat onto the Commonwealth of Kentucky emblem at mid-court. Another "T."

Givens made both of the free throws. This came during a 17-4 Kentucky surge that turned a 58-56 deficit into a 73-62 lead. Which was enough for UK's fifth SEC win against four defeats. The Cats are 10-7 overall.

Despite the disputes involving both coaches—the Higgs hassle lasted some six minutes—Phillips was actually playing the best basketball of his young career.

"I was too tight in the first half," Phillips conceded, "but I loosened up in the second half. I was fortunate to be in the right place many times. We just went to war in the second half."

That was not so earlier in the fiercely contested game marred by 53 fouls and 63 free throw attempts.

"LSU hit everything they threw up there," Givens sighed, "but we knew they couldn't keep that up. (During one stage of the first half, the Tigers made nine straight from the field.) We started moving our offense and loosened up."

"LSU was pushing and holding on a lot and the referees wanted to keep the game from getting out of control. They called the game real close but it probably went more our way in the second half."

Other things, of course, went Kentucky's way after intermission.

"Our 1-3-1 zone didn't give LSU much at all and Phillips was phenomenal," Hall said. (The Tigers, averaging 87 points to lead the SEC, scored 27 after the break, only 13 over the last 13:34. Phillips had 16 himself.)

All was not pleasant for Hall. With 17:29 left, he removed reserve Bob Fowler from the game. The home crowd boomed. And Hall glared back.

"When I need to make an adjustment, I hope I've the freedom to do so," the UK coach said. "I was surprised at our crowd. I couldn't understand it."

The home fans also "distinguished" themselves by booing Higgs, the Kentuckian who went south because UK chose not to recruit him. An exciting player, the Tiger sophomore helped his team to its early lead with exceptional shooting and all-around play.

But Higgs could not do it all himself. LSU's starting front line each had three fouls by intermission and were eventually disqualified along with reserve Michael Brown.

The Wildcats' next engagement is Saturday afternoon at Knoxville against the league-leading Tennessee Volunteers. UT won the first game 90-88 in overtime Jan. 10.

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI) — Two plainclothes officers stopped at a motel to use the restroom but instead they found Pittsburgh Steeler defensive tackle Ernie Holmes handing cocaine to another man.

"It was the fickle finger of fate I suppose you'd say," said Dan Carter, a spokesman for the law enforcement agency. "They just walked into it. When they walked in, Holmes threw a silver container of powder toward the toilet bowl, but it fell short and some of the powder spilled out."

Carter said the officers took Holmes, 27, into custody Saturday night pending charges after the powder was tested. The test results were received Monday and Holmes was officially charged with possession of 250 milligrams of cocaine.

He was released on $1,000 cash bond and immediately left the city for Phoenix, where he was scheduled to attend a meeting of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. The other man in the restroom was not charged and his name was not released.

On March 16, 1973, Holmes was captured after a four-hour chase near Salem, Ohio. During the chase, Holmes fired at three moving trucks and a police helicopter and wounded Ohio Highway Patrolman Larry W. Myers.

Holmes pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and was placed on five years probation, which later was shortened because of his compliance with the terms of the probation. The court also ordered him to pay Myers $25,000 in damages.

Tech's all-time leading scorer trailed again after breaking away from a 40-40 tie, the Eagles did not put the game away until the final 27 seconds on two free throws each by freshmen guards Herbie Stamper and Brad LeMaster.

After Mike Kelley hit two free throws for an 80-74 Morehead lead, the small Eagle guard was pressured into a pair of turnovers which led to Tech baskets. Then, Kelley was involved in the play, or non-play of the night.

The Eagles' best foul shooter was dribbling his way through Tech defenders to run time off the clock in the final minute. Twice Kelley penetrated the lane but the third time through Waddell whistled a jump ball.

Schalow and the Eagle partisans thought they had seen a page out of "Believe It Or Not."

"He (Waddell) told me that the player had five seconds to beat his man and that Mike didn't beat the guy the third time through," Schalow said. "The guy was nowhere near here and if that's not beating him, then that guy played some good defense."

Tech controlled the tip and Frank Jones was fouled with the score 80-78.

No Boons
But Jones, who became

'Bama, Vandy Survive Scares

By ED SHEARER
AP Sports Writer

Coach C. M. Newton of Alabama was talking about only his game, but he pretty well summed up an interesting night of basketball Monday in the Southeastern Conference.

"It was wild and wooly," said Newton, who steered his 14th-ranked Crimson Tide to a 69-67 victory over Georgia by forcing an overtime with four points in the final 19 seconds of regulation play.

But, that hardly compared with the controversy at Vanderbilt and Kentucky, not to mention the king-sized scare Mississippi State gave league-leading Tennessee at Knoxville.

Vanderbilt, the darkhorse challenger for the conference crown, trimmed Mississippi 61-60 on Dicky Keffer's disputed 30-foot jump shot at the buzzer—the Rebels claimed it came after the horn had sounded.

Kentucky downed Louisiana State 85-71, but Bengal Coach Dale Brown claimed it was Kentucky Coach Joe Hall's intimidation of the officials that made the difference, not the Wildcat players.

Mississippi State clamped a

ROY SKINNER
Saw It All

seven-point collar on Vol ace Bernard King and closed to within 67-63 with 1:28 remaining before the eight-ranked Vols cashed in on free throws for a 75-66 victory.

The action, marking the halfway mark in the race, left Tennessee on top with an 8-1 record, followed by Alabama and Vandy, each at 7-2.

Ole Miss had taken a 60-59 lead over Vandy with 12 seconds remaining on a basket by John Billips. The Commodores called time out, then moved the length of the court where Jeff Fosnes attempted to shoot a 20-footer. Fosnes was unable to get the shot off, but shoveled the ball to Keffer, who fired his game-winning 30-footer.

Coach Robert (Cob) Jarvis and a group of Ole Miss players converged on the scorer's table where officials George Straughters and Don Shea ruled the basket good, conferring with official timer Fred Hazlewood.

Coach Roy Skinner called the Fosnes pass "a great maneuver, quick thinking. His reaction and the Keffer shot will mean a great deal in this title race. I was never so happy to see one go in. It was clearly good. I wasn't worried about the clock, only the ball."

But Jarvis disagreed. "It wasn't good to me," Jarvis said. "I think I saw Straughters signaling it wasn't good, but then they went over and asked the timekeeper. What can I say other than that. It's over now."

Fosnes led Vandy with 16 points and Walter Actwood had 24 for the Rebels, who dropped their ninth straight conference game.

"We've been close, but not this close before in the conference," said Jarvis. We had Tennessee, then Georgia and tonight Vandy, and came away with nothing."

Alabama blew a seven-point lead at Athens and then staged its incredible comeback on a pair of 18-foot jump shots by substitute Tommy Bonds with 19 and four seconds remaining. Then Anthony Murray tallied six points in the extra period to spark the Tide victory.

"A team with a little less to it than ours would have lost this game," said Newton. "This may be the biggest win we've had in some time."

SEC Basketball Data

Monday's Games

MISSISSIPPI STATE (66)
Hooker 4 0-0, Williams 3 0-0, Peck 9 0-2, White 8 2-18, Perry 2 0-0, Wright 0 0-0, Stroran 0 0-0, Kanarr 3 3-4, Moss 0 3-3. Totals 29 8-12.

TENNESSEE (13)
Grumfield 9 4-22, King 2 3-5, Ashworth 1 5-7, Jackson 4 6-14, Darden 4 6-14, Clark 1 0-2, Crosby 2 0-1, Chapman 2 1-4. Totals 25 25-35.

Halttime: Tennessee 46, Mississippi St. 35. Total fouls: Mississippi 24, Tennessee 14. Technical: Grumfield, A. 12, 94.

OLE MISS (68)
Actwood 10 4-24, Davis 0 0-0, Harris 5 2-6, Jackson 0 0-0, Billips 3 0-0, Varner 2 0-0, Emanuel 4 0-1, Wright 0 0-0, Kyles 1 0-0, Murray 2 0-1. Totals: 27 6-12.

VANDERBILT (61)
Fosnes 7 2-16, Fisher 3 1-7, Snead 4 2-10, Keffer 6 0-12, Ford 7 0-14, Moore 1 0-0. Totals: 28 5-4.

Halttime: Vanderbilt 38, Ole Miss 31. Total fouls: Ole Miss 12, Vanderbilt 12. A. 134.

Alabama (69)	Murray 7 4-18, Dunn 5 0-0, Douglas 4 3-7, King 3 0-0, Brown 4 4-12, McCord 0 0-0, Bowerman 1 0-0, Chapman 1 0-0, McElvren 0 0-0, Bonds 4 0-8. Totals 29 11-5.
Georgia (67)	Daniels 2 0-2, Flanagan 8 0-16, Foster 4 0-8, Jackson 5 0-10, Dorsey 13 1-14, Drifts 0 0-0, Fusi 1 0-0, Thorpe 0 0-0. Totals 37 1-8.
Halttime: Georgia 22, Alabama 31. Total fouls: Alabama 11, Georgia 18. Fouled out: Foster, A. 9:30.
Standings
Conference All Games
	W L Pct. W L Pct.
Tennessee	8 1 .889 15 2 .882
Alabama	7 2 .778 14 3 .824
Vanderbilt	7 2 .778 11 7 .611
Auburn	6 3 .667 10 6 .625
Kentucky	5 4 .556 10 7 .588
Georgia	4 5 .444 9 5 .500
Florida	3 6 .333 8 7 .529
Miss. State	3 6 .333 10 7 .588
LSU	2 7 .222 9 8 .529
Mississippi	0 9 .000 4 14 .222

Louisiana State 71		Kentucky 85
fg	ft	fg	ft
Green 0	0	0	0
Bailey 5	8	0	0
LeBlanc 2	4	1	3
Higgs 10	25	12	14
Coppens 7	16	0	0
Brown 0	3	5	7
High 1	3	0	1
Huffman 0	1	0	0
Miller 1	4	0	0
Newman 0	2	1	2
Saylor 0	1	0	0
Totals	26	67	29
Alabama 66		Mississippi State 58
fg	ft	fg	ft
Givens 6	11	7	10
Haskins 1	3	0	3
Phillips 12	22	11	14
Johnson 5	11	3	5
Warford 2	6	2	2
Lee 1	3	1	1
Fowler 0	0	2	2
Casey 0	0	0	0
Clytor 1	9	0	1
Totals	28	65	29
Kentucky	40	45	85
LSU	11	0	1
Officials — Reggie Copeland and Ken Lauderdale	A — 11, 20.

Morehead Slips Past Tech

By GARY YUNT
Leader Staff Writer

MOREHEAD, Ky. — For a goodly part of Monday night's game here between Morehead and Tennessee Tech, ropes, of the wrestling ring variety, would have been more appropriate than the ropes hanging from the basketball goals.

So, in that vein, we will report that Morehead's Eagles pinned an 84-81 Ohio Valley Conference loss on the visiting Golden Eagles. The win gives Morehead a 4-3 OVC mark and 8-7 overall slate with Tech falling to 3-4 in OVC play and 10-5 on the year.

Neither coach Jack Schalow of Morehead nor Tech's Connie Inman would comment on the officiating that left both men gritting their teeth at various stages of the tight contest.

The game had all the ingredients of Big-Time Wrestling with Tech's Willie Smith quickly assuming the villain's role after a pair of quick rough-house fouls that raised the ire of the 4,000 Morehead faithful.

The first half, which ended in a 38-38 deadlock, featured only 15 fouls but the second half found the officials, Russ Waddell and Larry Warr, tooting the whistle 35 times and fouling out three Tech players including Smith.

Plenty Of Charly
Morehead, the nation's best free throw shooting team, survived at the line as it hit its first 19 charity tosses and 26 of 28 for the night. It had to survive there as Tech hit a blistering 58.6 per cent for the game from the field on 34 of 58 shots.

Schalow: A Page From Ripley

Schalow and the Eagle partisans thought they had seen a page out of "Believe It Or Not."

"He (Waddell) told me that the player had five seconds to beat his man and that Mike didn't beat the guy the third time through," Schalow said. "The guy was nowhere near here and if that's not beating him, then that guy played some good defense."

Tech controlled the tip and Frank Jones was fouled with the score 80-78.

No Boons
But Jones, who became

tech's all-time leading scorer trailed again after breaking away from a 40-40 tie, the Eagles did not put the game away until the final 27 seconds on two free throws each by freshmen guards Herbie Stamper and Brad LeMaster.

After Mike Kelley hit two free throws for an 80-74 Morehead lead, the small Eagle guard was pressured into a pair of turnovers which led to Tech baskets. Then, Kelley was involved in the play, or non-play of the night.

The Eagles' best foul shooter was dribbling his way through Tech defenders to run time off the clock in the final minute. Twice Kelley penetrated the lane but the third time through Waddell whistled a jump ball.

Although Morehead never trailed again after breaking away from a 40-40 tie, the Eagles did not put the game away until the final 27 seconds on two free throws each by freshmen guards Herbie Stamper and Brad LeMaster.

After Mike Kelley hit two free throws for an 80-74 Morehead lead, the small Eagle guard was pressured into a pair of turnovers which led to Tech baskets. Then, Kelley was involved in the play, or non-play of the night.

The Eagles' best foul shooter was dribbling his way through Tech defenders to run time off the clock in the final minute. Twice Kelley penetrated the lane but the third time through Waddell whistled a jump ball.

Schalow and the Eagle partisans thought they had seen a page out of "Believe It Or Not."

"He (Waddell) told me that the player had five seconds to beat his man and that Mike didn't beat the guy the third time through," Schalow said. "The guy was nowhere near here and if that's not beating him, then that guy played some good defense."

Tech controlled the tip and Frank Jones was fouled with the score 80-78.

No Boons
But Jones, who became

Sports Journal

FOOTBALL
Ron Blackledge, offensive line coach at the University of Kentucky the last three years, has accepted the post of offensive coordinator at Princeton University.

GOLF
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Dale Hayes of South Africa fired a three-under-par 69 to beat fellow countryman John Fourie by three strokes in an 18-hole playoff and win the South African Open golf tournament.

BASEBALL
BOCA RATON, Fla. — Victor Amaya, a student at the University of Michigan, upset veteran Clark Graebner 6-2 to highlight first-round in a $50,000 independent Players Association tournament.

NEW YORK — Fred Lindstrom, a 311 lifetime hitter; Roger Connor, who played between 1900 and 1902; and former umpire Cal Hubbard were named to the Hall of Fame by baseball's Veterans' Committee.

Tech's all-time leading scorer trailed again after breaking away from a 40-40 tie, the Eagles did not put the game away until the final 27 seconds on two free throws each by freshmen guards Herbie Stamper and Brad LeMaster.

After Mike Kelley hit two free throws for an 80-74 Morehead lead, the small Eagle guard was pressured into a pair of turnovers which led to Tech baskets. Then, Kelley was involved in the play, or non-play of the night.

The Eagles' best foul shooter was dribbling his way through Tech defenders to run time off the clock in the final minute. Twice Kelley penetrated the lane but the third time through Waddell whistled a jump ball.

Schalow and the Eagle partisans thought they had seen a page out of "Believe It Or Not."

"He (Waddell) told me that the player had five seconds to beat his man and that Mike didn't beat the guy the third time through," Schalow said. "The guy was nowhere near here and if that's not beating him, then that guy played some good defense."

Tech controlled the tip and Frank Jones was fouled with the score 80-78.

No Boons
But Jones, who became

tech's all-time leading scorer trailed again after breaking away from a 40-40 tie, the Eagles did not put the game away until the final 27 seconds on two free throws each by freshmen guards Herbie Stamper and Brad LeMaster.

</

Stamper's 32 Leads Eagles

By GARY YUNT

MOREHEAD, Ky.—"I want you to set some screens so Herbie can shoot," screamed Morehead coach Jack Schalow to Brad LeMaster during the final half of last night's nail-biter at Wetherby Gymnasium.

Although the screen failed to materialize, Herbie Stamper did his number at the foul line by sinking all 12 free throw attempts as Morehead soared to an 84-81 win over Tennessee Tech.

"I want Herbie to shoot more every night, but he's so darn concerned about setting screens for other guys that he doesn't," said Schalow of Stamper, who made 10 of 17 shots from the floor for a game-high 32 points.

"Your good scorers have to shoot 25 times a game and I'd like Herbie to, but he's averaging 21 and shooting only 15 times a game."

Stamper, the freshman from Knott County Central, made eight free throws inside the final 10 minutes as Tech whittled and whittled but never could overtake an eight-point Morehead lead that was established in the first 10 minutes of the final half.

After three early ties, Tech took advantage of two Morehead turnovers for a 12-6 lead. Three times Tech opened eight-point leads in the opening half, the last at 26-18 with 3:17 left.

But the Eagles clawed back despite making 13 first-half turnovers to finally catch up at 36-35 on a Craig Morris rebound basket with 1:15 remaining. A Brad LeMaster steal and assist to Stamper gave Morehead a 38-36 lead with five seconds left but Frank Jones, who became Tech's all-time leading scorer with 1,544 points, swished a high-arching 18-footer at the buzzer to tie the game at halftime 38-38.

Ted Hundley and Jerry Matthews exchanged baskets to start the second half for the last tie at 40-40.

LeMaster and Andre Jones hit for a 44-40 lead and Morehead never trailed again as it built five eight-point leads.

Tech, now 10-6 overall and 3-4 in the Ohio Valley Conference, had one chance to tie but Matthews missed the first part of a one-bonus with Tech down 63-61.

A Stamper field goal and four points by LeMaster made it 69-61 with 7:06 left.

Morehead, which made its first nineteen free throw attempts, appeared home free at 80-74 on a pair of Mike Kelley free throws with 2:20 left, but two Kelley turnovers allowed Tech to make its last try.

"Mike's got a dislocated thumb on his left hand and he's got whacked around pretty good a couple times," said Schalow. "He weighs only 132 pounds and he gets hit and he skitters around."

John Adams and Tom Schmidt baskets made it 80-78 and when Kelley lost the ball on a jump after failing to penetrate toward the basket, Jones had a chance to even things up. But the Chattanooga senior made only the first of two shots and Hundley claimed the rebound.

Stamper was fouled hard by Bobby Estes going for a layup off a long Hundley pass and his two free throws sealed the verdict.

Morehead made 29 of 57 shots for 50.8 per cent in raising its OVC mark to 4-3 and overall slate to 8-7 while Tech made 34 of 58 for 58.6 per cent from the field.

Andre Jones backed Stamper with 16 points, while LeMaster had 14 and Hundley 10 in addition to a game-high 12 rebounds for Morehead which won the battle of the boards, 37-23.

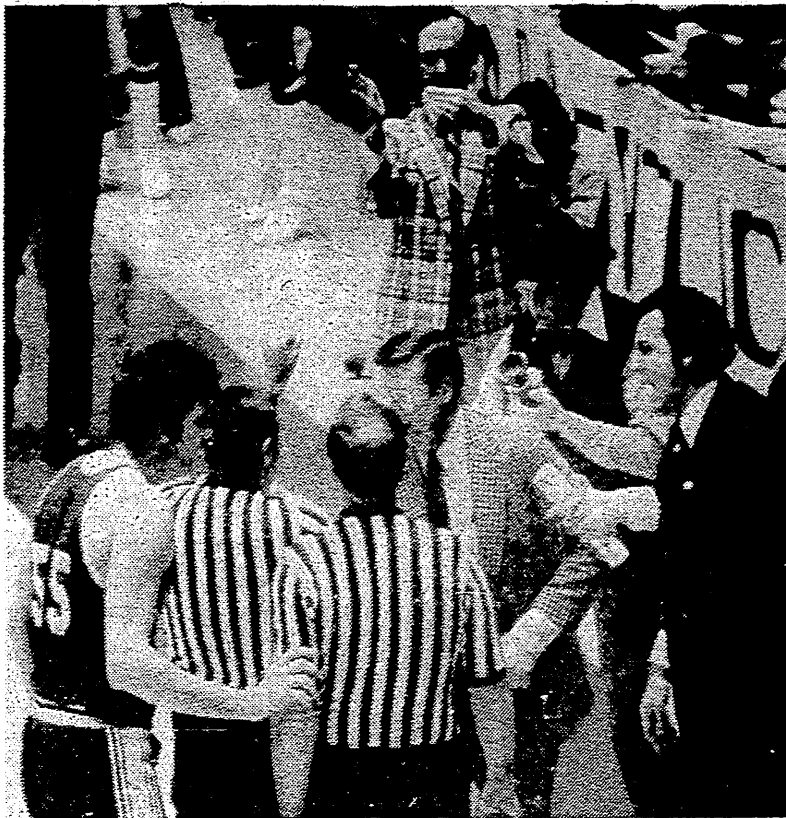

Frank Jones and Schmidt were the lone Tech players in double figures with 30 and 23 points respectively.

Morehead travels to Louisville Wednesday night while Tech is at Eastern Kentucky in an OVC game.

At Morehead (84)—Morris 1 0 0 2; Brown 6 23 15; Owens 1 2 19; Young 5 2 11; Oliver 7 9 11; Segar 8 22 32; LeMaster 4 6 7 14; Stamper 10 12 12 32; Russell 3 0 0 6; Kelley 0 4 5 4; Sable 0 0 0 0; Totals 29 28 28 84.

Tennessee Tech (81)—Schmidt 9 5 6 23; Stude 2 0 4 4; Smith 0 0 0 0; Jones 12 5 8 36; Estes 2 0 4 4; Adams 1 0 0 2; Howell 3 2 3 8; Matthews 2 0 1 4; Porter 3 0 1 6; Totals 34 13 19 81.

At Hamilton 35-26. Total Fouls—Morehead 21, Tennessee Tech 29. Fouled Out—Stude, Smith, Howell.

Hot Time In The Coliseum

Officials Ken Lauderdale, left, and Reggie Copeland talk heatedly with Kentucky coach Joe Hall and assistant coach Lynn Nance in the first half of last night's game at Memorial Coliseum. UK's Mike Phillips (55) is at left. LSU coach Dale Brown, top,

Madison, Woodford On Top... Devils Hot, Win 92-65

By SCOTT WARNER

"I felt overall that we played like the weather," began Henry Clay coach Al Prewitt. "Cold and flat."

The Blue Devils were certainly not frigid from the floor, however, as the state's third-ranked team shot a hot 56.3 per cent en route to a 92-65 stomping of Frankfort in a Central Kentucky Conference Tournament preliminary round game last night.

There were a few rough spots—not many—but a few.

"I think the fact that we didn't have school today had something to do with our performance," explained Prewitt. "It breaks up your routine a little bit and can throw a team off balance. We had quite a few flat spots out there tonight, and then again we played very well at times."

Frankfort played evenly with the taller Blue Devils in the first quarter and were only down by four points at the beginning of the second period.

Sabs Provide Spark

But the Henry Clay starters did not return to the floor at the start of that second period, as Prewitt posted his entire second team to see how they could handle the clawing Panthers.

His strategy paid off as the Henry Clay subs, led by the muscle-work of Mike Scearce and the shooting of Charlie Sweat, opened the game up to take a 17-point lead at intermission.

"Our reserves have played that way all year," said Prewitt. "Whenever we call on them to help us out, they go in there and open things up. They really did a good job when they had to."

Then the veterans took over and caged the Panthers, moving ahead by as much as 27 points late in the third quarter.

"Our defense looked excellent at times," admitted Prewitt, "but we weren't able to sustain the pressure. "And we threw the ball away too many times," continued Prewitt. "But like I say we were just flat."

Redden Nets 28

One spark in the semi-potent Frankfort offensive attack was the outstanding play of forward Charles Redden. Redden led all scorers with 28 points and pulled down seven rebounds.

"I think we made an All-CKC player out of that kid tonight," laughed Prewitt. "He really had himself a game. He's a good shooter."

Don Moore and John Shelby led the Blue Devils in scoring, netting 18 points each. Scearce contributed 16 points and led all rebounders along with teammate Billy Thomas with nine retrieves.

"We tried to slow things down and just stay close to Henry Clay," said Frankfort coach Charles Stransburger to a radio broadcaster. "But things just got out of hand and our defense was just not strong enough to hold them."

The win was Henry Clay's 14th against three setbacks. The Panthers are now 6-10. The Blue Devils travel to Louisville tonight for a contest with Atherton.

Elsewhere In CKC...

The other CKC preliminary round games last night produced a couple of thrillers.

At Madison, the home-standing Purples edged Paris 68-67 on Larry Estill's basket with three seconds to go in the second overtime while at Anderson County, visiting Garrard County won 80-79 when Clay Parson sunk a free throw after time had run out in overtime.

Woodford County also won, topping Mt. Sterling 74-68. Turners Lead Madison

The Turner brothers—Jackie and Keury—led Madison with 21 and 16 points, respectively while 6-5 Kyle Brooks came up with 12 points and 17 rebounds.

William Davis collected 17 points and 16 rebounds for Paris and teammate Bobby Lee added 15 points and a game-high 20 caroms.

Ricky White and Hubert Snodgrass combined for 50 points—with 28 of those belong to White—to spark Garrard County's victory. Keith Lawson was high man for Anderson, tallying 26 points.

Woodford Controls

Woodford County, meanwhile, was pretty much in control against Mt. Sterling, leading by as many as 14 points in the fourth quarter.

Senior guard Jerry Guy paced Gene Kirk's Yellowjackets with 24 points and junior forward Bo Lenter added 18. Alonzo Prater tallied 24 for the Trojans, but Al Blevins, the CKC's leading scorer with a 24.1 average, was held to 14.

Henry Clay, Woodford, Madison and Garrard all advance along with Jessamine County, Danville, Somerset and Lincoln County to the CKC quarterfinals, which begin Wednesday at Woodford County.

At Henry Clay (92)—Thomas 2 0 0 4; Clay 1 0 2 2; Moore 7 4 4 18; Shelby 6 2 4 18; Jenkins 2 2 8 10; Williams 1 2 4 6; Sweat 2 2 2 4; Wilkinson 2 0 0 4; Scearce 8 6 1 16; Points 2 0 3 4; Farris 0 0 0 0; Bell 2 0 4; Chappell 1 0 2 2; Totals 40 12 15 92.

Frankfort (65)—Harris 3 3 5 9; Redden 10 8 9 28; T. Young 1 0 1 2; Jones 4 0 2 8; Townsend 1 2 2 4; Smith 0 0 0 0; Brooks 5 2 2 2; Timney 0 0 0 0; Wash 2 1 1 5; Mills 1 2 4 5; Hooker 0 0 2 0; Totals 33 19 30 65.

Henry Clay Frankfort 17 41 63 92 23 24 45 65

Fouled out—Bell, Total fouls—Henry Clay 24, Frankfort 17.

At Anderson Co. (79)—K. Lawson 26; Russell 15; Drury 11; Wiedner 9; Davenport 8; T. Lawson 6; Gillis 4.

Garrard Co. (80)—R. White 26; Snodgrass 22; Merriman 13; Parson 11; Porter 6; L. White 2.

Anderson Co. 16 37 55 74 79; Garrard Co. 14 42 64 74 80.

At Woodford County (74)—Guy 24; Lenter 18; Oschwald 10; Mullins 10; Curfey 6; Devine 4.

Mt. Sterling (81)—Prater 24; Gapewood 15; Stevins 14; Breeze 10; Warner 5.

Woodford County 20 34 52 74; Mt. Sterling 14 38 46 68.

At Paris (67)—Devis 17; Leer 15; L. Roberts 13; Snowdon 12; Howard 6; Young 2; M. Roberts 2.

Richmond Madison (68)—J. Turner 21; K. Turner 16; Douglas 11; Brooks 12; Estill 4; Walker 2; Mayfield 2.

Paris 15 25 43 62 67; Madison 18 28 44 62 68.

Oliver A Standout As Eastern Wins

Special To The Herald

RICHMOND, Ky.—Led by a healthy Mike Oliver, Eastern held off East Tennessee 93-90 for its third straight Ohio Valley Conference victory last night.

Oliver, a 6-foot-7 sophomore forward who has been plagued by illness most of the season, collected 23 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists and hit two crucial free throws in only his second start of the campaign.

The home-standing Colonels were in command for almost three-quarters of the game, but then needed a spurt at the end to nip the Buccaneers.

Eastern led by 10, 49-38, at the half and moved out in front by 68-53 with just over 13 minutes left to play.

At that point, however, East Tennessee began a surge that eventually produced an 86-86 tie with only 1:50 to play.

Eastern responded with five straight points, but the visitors cut the margin to 91-90 before a pair of free throws by Oliver with eight seconds left assured the Colonels of the triumph.

Bill Dwane added 19 points, Jimmy Segar 18 and Carl Brown 15 for the winners, who are now 7-9 overall and 4-3 in the conference.

Bob Brown, who entered the game as the nation's leading field goal percentage shooter, led the Bucs with 26 points—hitting 10 of 17 from the field.

At Eastern (93)—Davis 1 3 5 5; C. Brown 6 23 15; Owens 1 2 19; Young 5 2 11; Oliver 7 9 11; Segar 8 22 32; LeMaster 4 6 7 14; Stamper 10 12 12 32; Russell 3 0 0 6; Kelley 0 4 5 4; Sable 0 0 0 0; Totals 29 28 28 84.

East Tennessee (90)—Harris 2 4 4 8; Jenkins 5 0 0 10; Farris 0 0 0 0; Smith 0 0 0 0; Jones 12 5 8 36; Estes 2 0 4 4; Adams 1 0 0 2; Howell 3 2 3 8; Matthews 2 0 1 4; Porter 3 0 1 6; Totals 34 13 19 81.

At Hamilton 35-26. Total Fouls—Eastern 18, East Tennessee 22. At. —24,6 (est.).

Union 86

Georgetown 81

Special To The Herald

GEORGETOWN, Ky.—Bill Feck and Mike Sammons combined for 45 points last night to lead visiting Union College to an 86-81 KIAC victory over Georgetown.

The winners also had two other players in double figures as their scoring balance offset a supreme effort by Georgetown's Jim Parrish who took game honors with 34 points.

At Georgetown (81)—Parrish 14 6 7 34; Williams 7 12 15; Sheridan 5 2 12; Roughs 2 0 0 6; Sarfoled 2 1 2 5; Alcorn 2 0 4 4; Murray 1 1 2 3; Richmond 1 0 2 2; Totals 35 11 15 81.

Union (86)—Peck 8 7 9 23; Sammons 9 4 5 22; Grubb 5 8 4 18; Jones 5 1 4 11; Hopkins 4 4 6; Peoples 1 0 2; Logan 0 1 3 1; Totals 32 22 33 86.

At Hamilton 35-26. Total Fouls—Union 40, Georgetown 25.

Commercial & Residential Remodeling! ACE Parker CONSTRUCTION CO. Call 233-0323

LET ME CONSOLIDATE YOUR BILLS 6% is all you pay for a Union Trust Signature Loan due in 30, 60, or 90 days. Call DAN McCOWAN at 278-0444

Cats Trim LSU In 'Ripley Bowl'

By D.G. FITZMAURICE

Kentucky outlasted LSU 85-71 last night at Memorial Coliseum in the first annual Ripley Basketball Bowl.

Actually, the score is about the only thing Ripley would have believed in this bizarre basketball game.

Would he have believed LSU coach Dale Brown's famous imitation of Sir Walter Raleigh late in the second half.

For his pains, Brown was assessed two technicals, but at least he kept his head, sort of anyway.

And would Ripley have believed Kentucky coach Joe Hall glaring at his own crowd after the fans hooted one of his substitutions.

Asking For A "T"

Or how about Brown begging for a technical while saying Hall had incited the crowd he recently glared at.

Or the six-minute controversy following Kenny Higgs' three-point play with 4:19 to go in the first half, a half that took 50 minutes to play.

Or Brown barging into the officials' dressing room and dressing down referee Reggie Copeland by questioning the latter's intestinal fortitude.

(What he said was, "Reggie, you didn't have the guts to throw Hall out of the game.")

And then there was Mike Phillips performing his rendition of "Gulliver And The Lilliputians," always a smash at the Coliseum.

Finally (I think), there was Brown asking reporters their interpretation of the game. After a rather lengthy pause, we selected Mike Sullivan as our pool spokesman.

Mike must have said the right thing, "cause Brown shook his hand.

But back to the game.

It all started harmlessly enough, like a thousand other games.

Phillips, who would call a career-high 35 points before the long evening expired, drilled home a 10-foot jump shot.

I really don't remember anything that happened after that, but eye witnesses tell me it went something like this.

Higgs Gets Hot With Higgs answering the taunts of the crowd by ripping the cords from the basket, the Tigers pawed to a 12-6 lead with 14:12 left in the first half.

Then Tiger teammate Floyd Bailey, a 60 per cent shooter from the floor, drilled home three consecutive jumpers to balloon the bulge to 18-10.

By this time, however, LSU had committed six team fouls in an evil omen of things to come.

Taking advantage of a batch of Kentucky turnovers, the Tigers the slowly stretched advantage and assumed their largest lead at 34-21 as Higgs converted a five-point play.

And that's when the Fourth of July replaced Groundhog Day in Kentucky.

If I can get the sequence straight, Larry Johnson was assessed a technical after fouling Higgs on the drive.

The bucket and the free throw were good and so was the first technical.

You note I used the phrase "first technical."

That's easily explained. While Higgs was falling under the basket, Hall and the UK bench were arguing that Lionel (Tree) Green had tipped the ball on the rim, thus nullifying the basket.

Neither Copeland or fellow official Ken Lauderdale was in position to make the call, and the basket stood.

Hall continued to remonstrate, calling the call "horse manure" or words to that effect.

Technical No. Two. "They (the officials) don't realize that's not a dirty word in the Bluegrass," joked Hall in the UK locker room.

A six or seven minute delay ensued while the officials attempted to restore sanity to the proceedings.

When play resumed, the momentum had switched to the Wildcat side, prompting this bit of ironic praise from Brown.

"Joe Hall won the game and he should be complimented," Brown asserted. "He intimidated the officials."

In a later meeting in the Kentucky dressing room, Brown shook Hall's hand while saying that the Wildcat coach and Ray Mears had done a terrific job in winning ball games.

Anyway, the Cats chipped into the lead to trail by only four, 44-40, at intermission, while the crowd of 11,200 wondered how the first-half action could be topped.

Coach Brown supplied the answer and the topper by doffing his sport coat (after he had previously begged in vain for a technical foul) and neatly draping it across the mid-section of the map of the Commonwealth.

The gesture cost the coach two technicals and increased the Kentucky lead to 73-62 with 6:47 remaining.

And that was the old ball game, except for the extra-

(See CATS, B-2)

Table with 4 columns: Player, Points, Rebounds, Assists. Lists stats for Kentucky and LSU players.

Sports Lineup BASKETBALL 7:50 - Tates Creek at Catholic (Radio WVLK) 9:30 - NBA All-Star Game (TV Ch. 27) OLYMPICS 9:00 - Winter Olympics (TV Ch. 62)

The Fifth Wonder of the World. EarlyTimes. To know us is to love us. Includes an image of an EarlyTimes Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whisky bottle and pricing information.

Vols Triumph

Alabama Survives In OT; Disputed Goal Nips Rebs

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Ernie Grunfeld poured in 22 points as ninth ranked Tennessee turned back upstart Mississippi State, 75-66, Monday night and held its grip on the Southeastern Conference basketball lead.

The Volunteers jumped off to an 18-4 lead in the first four minutes of the game and appeared on the way to a rout. But at this point, State Coach Kremit Davis called time and the Bulldogs took the zip out of Tennessee's fast break.

The tenacious Bulldogs double-teamed Bernard King, the SEC's leading scorer, and limited him to seven points. King, who went into the contest with a 28.6 average, got into foul trouble early and sat out nearly 12 minutes of the first half.

Alabama survived in overtime and regained possession when Jacky Dorsey dribbled the ball off his foot. Bonds hit the tying basket with four seconds left.

Murray put the Crimson Tide ahead for good 20 seconds into the overtime period and added two more baskets as Alabama built a 69-63 lead with 20 seconds left.

ALABAMA (69)
Murray 7-4-18, Dunn 5-0-10, Douglas 4-3-7, King 3-0-6, Brown 4-5-12, McCord 0-0-0, Bowertson 1-0-2, Chapman 1-0-2, McElveen 0-0-0, Bonds 4-0-8. Totals 29-11-15.

MISSISSIPPI STATE (66)
Daniels 2-0-2, Flanagan 8-0-16, Foster 4-0-8, Jackson 5-0-10, Dorsey 13-14-27, Orr 0-0-0, Fusi 1-0-2, Thorne 0-0-0. Totals 27-18. Totals 27-14.

Halftime: Georgia 32, Alabama 31. Total fouls: Alabama 11, Georgia 18. Fouled out: Foster, A.; 9:30.

Vanderbilt 61 Mississippi 60

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Five-foot-11 sophomore Dicky Keffer hit a 30-foot jump shot at the buzzer to give Vanderbilt a 61-60 Southeastern Conference basketball victory over Mississippi Monday night.

Keffer's shot caused a storm of controversy at the end of the game as Ole Miss Coach Cob Jarvis claimed the shot came after the buzzer.

But officials George Strauthers and Don Shea ruled that Keffer had shot before time expired. Strauthers and Shea converged on the scorer's table as did Jarvis and a group of Ole Miss players. Official timer Fred Hazlewood agreed with the officials and a disappointed Rebel team left the court.

Alabama 69 Georgia 67

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Tommy Bonds poured in two 18-foot jumpers in the final 19 seconds to force an overtime and Anthony Murray tallied three field goals in the extra period Monday night as the 11th-ranked Alabama trimmed Georgia 69-67 in a Southeastern Conference basketball game.

The Bulldogs, who saw a four-game winning streak end, nursed a 61-57 advantage in the closing minute of regulation before Bonds went to work, hitting from the left of

SEC Standings

Conference	All Games	W	L	Pct.	W	L	Pct.
Tennessee	7	1	6	.125	1	6	.143
Alabama	7	2	5	.286	2	5	.286
Vanderbilt	7	2	5	.286	2	5	.286
Auburn	6	3	3	.500	3	3	.500
Kentucky	5	3	2	.600	3	2	.600
Georgia	5	3	2	.600	3	2	.600
Florida	5	3	2	.600	3	2	.600
Miss. State	5	3	2	.600	3	2	.600
Mississippi	5	4	1	.800	4	1	.800

Cats Win 'Ripley Bowl'

Owen Co. 3, Embury 23
Trimble Co. 58, Oldham Co. 41
Hancock Co. 55, Fordsville 37
Henry Co. 35, Taylorville 57
Hart Co. 46, Covena 31

Boys Highs

Clark Co. 48, Boone Co. 38
Madison Co. 45, Hickman Co. 38
Crittendon Co. 42, Warren Co. 35
Calloway Co. 40, Simpson Co. 32
Madison Co. 45, Hickman Co. 38
Crittendon Co. 42, Warren Co. 35
Calloway Co. 40, Simpson Co. 32

Girls Highs

Frankfort 57, Henry Clay 54
Madison 45, Catholic 43

Other Games

Knox Central 51, Middleboro 36
Cov. Holmes 59, Boone Co. 52
Fleming Co. 42, Maysville 42
McCreary Co. 41, Shepville 20
Berne 44, Ansville 41
Scott Co. 58, Harrison Co. 39
Bellevue 119, Samford 70
Bracken Co. 53, Mason Co. 49
Jenkins 62, Fleming-Neon 31
Danville 59, Garrard Co. 46
Boonville Co. 42, Montgomery Co. 37
Betsy Layne 56, McDowell 54
Newport 61, Simon Kenton 47
Paintsville 77, Prestonsburg 60
Ashland 55, Russell 50
Newport 60, Simon Kenton 47
Madison Central 46, Estill Co. 35
Mercy 37, Abertown 54
Assumption 72, Angelo Merici 48
E. Hardin 59, Elizabethtown 50
Lewis Co. 51, Augusta 43
Bottlet Central 31, Barstons 30
Beckwood 60, Ludlow 78
McLean Co. 45, Apollis 28
Berkeley Springs, Washington Co. 29
Shelby Co. 44, Carroll Co. 42
Larini Co. 62, Wayne Co. 49
Carpell Co. 57, Ft. Thomas Highlands 45

Other

Fort Valley 51, Clark 63
Farman 77, Appalachian 76
Georgia South 76, Samford 70
N. Georgia 82, Oglesborne 75
Tulane 99, Xavier 86
W. Virginia Tech 96, Wilberforce 60
Georgia Tech 66, VMI 56
St. Paul's 75, Shaw 66
Valdosta 51, Southern Tech 75
W. Carolina 100, Mars Hill 24
Delta St. 81, Livingston 66
Virginia Tech 87, Ocala City 66

South

W. Illinois 87, Quincy 86
Rio Grande 72, Cedarville 62
Stout 87, Superior 63
Michigan 107, Wisconsin 86
Purdue 91, Iowa 76
Loyola (Ill.) 86, Ohio U. 82 (OT)
Michigan St. 91, Northwestern 71
Jacksonville 75, N. Illinois 72

Southeast

Arkansas St. 73, Lamar 66

Higgs Makes His Move

LSU's Kenny Higgs penetrates the lane night's game. Higgs scored 22 points in the first half and finished the night with 32 and Mike Phillips in the first half of last (Staff Photo by David Perry).

Baseball Hall Of Fame

Tabs Hubbard, Lindstrom

NEW YORK (AP) — Cal Hubbard, a burly former umpire, became the first man ever to be elected to the Hall of Fame for both baseball and pro football Monday.

Baseball's veterans' committee unanimously selected Hubbard: Fred Lindstrom, a lifetime .311 hitter, and Roger Connor, from the dead ball pre-1900 era. They will be inducted Aug. 9 at Cooperstown, N.Y., along with Robin Roberts and Bob Lemon, outstanding pitchers during the 1950s who were voted into the Hall last month by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Hubbard, 75, was a two-way tackle for the New York Giants and Green Bay Packers of the National Football League from 1927 through 1936. He became a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio, in 1963. He umpired in the minor leagues during off-season and began working as an American League umpire in 1936. From 1954-68 he was supervisor of AL ump.

Hubbard, who spends the winter at Treasure Island, Fla., and the rest of the year in Milan, Mo., was not immediately available for comment.

Lindstrom, 70, was a third baseman-outfielder who spent nine of his 12 major league seasons with the New York Giants. He broke in under Manager John McGraw and played in the 1924 World Series for New York as an 18-year-old, batting .333 and had 23 chances without an error at third.

"It's a real kick, a real honor," said Lindstrom, who got the word of his election from a neighbor while returning from a golf course in Port Richey, Fla. "I didn't do much on the course. But that doesn't matter now."

Connor, who died 45 years ago in his native Waterbury, Conn., had a lifetime batting average of .325 while playing first base for Troy, New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis of the National League from 1880 through 1897.

The veterans' committee annually votes on players — previously bypassed by the writers — who have been retired for 25 years, and on baseball executives, managers and umpires who have been retired for at least five years. The five-year waiting period is reduced to six months for those 65 years of age or older.

Hubbard is regarded as one of pro football's first "big" men. He stands 6-foot-2 and weighed around 270 pounds in his playing days. He attended Centenary College and was graduated from Geneva (Pa.). He was a fine coach at Texas A&M in 1934 and was head football coach at Geneva in 1941-42.

He was an umpire in the World Series of 1938, 1942, 1946 and 1949 and worked three All-Star games.

Lindstrom became the youngest player ever to play in a World Series in 1924, and he set a record with four hits in a game — all off Walter Johnson. He was victimized in the deciding game of that Series against Washington when Earl McVeey's easy grounder hit a pebble and bounced over Lindstrom's head, scoring the winning run.

In 1928 he hit .358, and in 1930 he batted .379 but failed to win National League batting title. In both seasons, he collected more than 200 hits. Lindstrom was a rangy, good fielder with a strong arm. After the 1932 season he was dealt to Pittsburgh where he spent two seasons. He then played in his native Chicago with the Cubs and closed out his career in a brief stint with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Lindstrom then was baseball coach at Northwestern University for 14 years and was postmaster in Evanston, Ill., before retiring to Florida.

HC Girls Bow 57-54; Knights Beaten Again

Snow cancelled two of last night's four games involving city teams, and the other two, both city teams lost, adding to the gloom.

Henry Clay had its winning streak snapped by home-standing Frankfort 57-54 as the Panthers pulled a second-quarter comeback, and Madison edged Catholic 45-43.

The Blue Devils, now 4-9, led until midway through the third quarter, when Frankfort, overcame a 10-point deficit to gain the lead for the first time at 34-32.

Then the Panthers, led by sophomore Holly Switzer with 28 points, took over, pressing the weakening Devils and never letting their margin slip under three.

Henry Clay never gave up, staying with the Panthers until the end, when a one-plus-one free throw attempt by an unidentified Devil failed, sealing the final margin.

Catholic kept its streak alive, losing its tenth game in as many outings.

The Knights started well, taking a 4-0 advantage, but couldn't keep the pressure up and steadily fell farther behind.

With a healthy 12-point lead going into the final period, Purples' coach Gwen Long pulled her starters and emptied her bench.

That almost proved fatal to Madison as the Knights took advantage of the lesser talent and pulled to within two in the final seconds. A last-minute shot by guard Kate Holloway was too short, though.

Madison's Jenny Chenault was high with 13 points, followed by teammates Kathy Ferrell with 12 and Donna Ford with 11. Center Laura Lynch paced Catholic with 12 points

Girls Prep Basketball Linescores

Holmes 59 Boone County 52

At Holmes (59)—Burgess 15, Rimer 11, McDavid 9, Shuefeldt 9, Cameron 5, Meyer 5, Beach 3, Tilley 2.

Boone County (52)—Vasiliandingham 17, Moore 14, Kohmyer 9, Julie Junker 6, Zembrod 2, Judy Junker 2, Rice 2.

Holmes 11 21 41 59
Boone County 12 27 45 52

Bellvue 110 Loyd 37

Bellvue (110)—Lyons 26, K. Forge 21, M. Forge 17, Brumback 10, Harper 6, McGovern 6, Rauh 6, Crittendon 6, Mendal 4, Krogerman 4, Young 2.

Lloyd (37)—Coston 15, Exler 13, Wolf 1, Linneman 4, Bradford 2, Hundley 2.

Bellvue 9 21 28 37
Lloyd 32 57 82 110

Grant Co.57 Scott Co.56

At Grant County (57)—Caldwell 18, Day 16, Hamons 11, Simpson 4, Whitton 8, Martin 2.

Scott County (54)—Prop 6, C. Collins 24, Florence 6, Garrett 6, R. Collins 14.

Grant Co. 18 28 44 56
Scott Co. 17 29 45 57

Danville 59 Garrard County 46

At Danville (59)—R. Johnson 34, Soars 11, Hart 4, Clark 4, Y. Johnson 2, S. Clark 2, Bartleson 2.

Garrard County (46)—Woodard 15, Shelton 15, White 6, Dunn 3, Yeakey 2, Anderson 2, Pellard 2.

Danville 12 24 47 59
Garrard County 8 18 29 46

Bracken County 53 Mason County 49

At Bracken County (53)—Flaugh 21, Ramsey 13, Ruf 13, Hamilton 2, Bauer 2, Fields 2.

Mason County (49)—Hickerson 17, Brown 12, Holland 6, Chambers 6, Wood 4, Landers 2, Brothers 2.

Bracken County 13 21 36 53
Mason County 8 23 35 49

Harrodsburg 97 Somerset 92

At Harrodsburg (97)—Bryant 38, Johnson 24, Morris 18, Westford 6, Jackson 4, Yeast 4, Parks 3, Mæuz 2.

Somerset (92)—Lanxin 29, Gilmore 19, Gover 22, Claunch 10, Dungan 12.

Somerset 25 45 62 92
Harrodsburg 29 44 75 97

Fleming Co. 48 Maysville 42

Fleming County (48)—Black 14, Smith 9, Dillon 7, Fryman 7, Selby 4, Porter 4, Hendrix 2.

Maysville (42)—Wilburn 12, Fry 10, Greene 6, Brooks 6, Gray 4, Chambers 2, Jackson 1.

Maysville 8 18 37 42
Fleming Co. 8 22 34 48

Madison Central 46 Estill Co. 35

At Madison Central (46)—K. Smith 18, J. Smith 8, Cosby 5, Coleman 5, Broadus 4, Shanks 2, Watts 2, Masters 1, Ballenger 1.

Estill County (35)—Strong 17, Orr 11, Erwin 3, Ingram 2, Johnson 2.

Madison Central 5 13 25 46
Estill Co. 3 13 25 46

Lincoln Co. 66 Casey Co. 64

Lincoln County (66)—Edgington 21, Simpson 17, Roster 10, Lowe 6, Baker 6, Martin 2.

Casey County (64)—Hogue 20, Saylor 19, Mann 16, Mullins 5, Murphy 2.

Casey Co. 24 41 57 64
Lincoln Co. 11 22 45 66

Frankfort 57 Henry Clay 54

At Frankfort (57)—Switzer 28, Jackson 16, Townsend 6, Blythe 2, Vest 2, Moore 1.

Henry Clay (54)—Maloney 16, Pritchett 16, Smith 10, Marlowe 4, Adair 4, Camero 2, Nickels 2.

Henry Clay 10 20 34 54
Frankfort 8 24 42 57

Madison 45 Lex. Catholic 43

At Madison (45)—Chazout 12, Ferrell 12, Ford 11, Clay 7, Campbell 2.

Lex. Catholic (43)—Schwartz 12, Holland 6, McGinnis 5, A. Holloway 4, Wrennes 2, Lynch 2, K. Holloway 4.

Madison 8 20 36 45
Lex. Catholic 10 17 24 43

Newport 60 Simon Kenton 47

Newport (60)—Murphy 31, Orne 22, Rice 4, Turner 1, Dorman 1.

Simon Kenton (47)—Reilly 10, Lewis 10, Blair 8, Hummel 7, Eggleston 6, Cooper 4, Riley 2.

Simon Kenton 6 19 31 47
Newport 13 26 42 60

Berea 46 Anville 41

At Berea (46)—Cornelison 21, A. Taylor 3, Berry 3, R. Taylor 3, VanWinkle 7, Cleary 9, Ferris 2, M. Ferris 2.

Anville (41)—Parratt 22, McCowan 10, Nagler 8, Clemens 1.

Berea 10 22 36 46
Anville 16 23 37 41

Betsy Layne 56 McDowell 54

At Betsy Layne (56)—Surbis 15, Martin 16, Hamilton 12, Hall 4, Clark 4.

McDowell (54)—Grigg 24, Roberts 17, Martin 6, Reid 4, Howell 3.

Betsy Layne 21 33 44 54
McDowell 13 26 38 54

UK Lady Kats Triumph 75-60

Social to the Herald

MOREHEAD, Ky.—The University of Kentucky Lady Kats put five players in double figures to offset a lapse at the end of the first half and defeat the Morehead women's team 75-60 here last night.

The 10-6 Lady Kats ran off 13 straight points in the first half to take a 24-9 lead on numerous steals by Sally Bussell and Ceal Berry. But after that spurt the Lady Kats got only one field goal the final nine minutes of the half which ended 34-30 in UK's favor.

"We got that big lead and the girls let up," said UK coach Sue Feamster. "They thought it was gonna be a breeze."

But Morehead, now 5-8, never got closer than four points in the final half. With five minutes left, and Morehead down 62-54, the Eagles committed four straight turnovers to nullify any chance of victory.

Morehead (60)—Fay 2, Blevins 6, Ames 19, VanDuse 2, Brown 22, Denver 1, Thomas 8, Isaacs 2, Thompson 0, Jones 0.

Kentucky (75)—Berry 16, Bussell 13, Browning 16, Timmerman 14, White 10, Wheeler 8, Lewis 6, Kidd 0.

At Halfway: Kentucky 34-20

Frankfort 57 Henry Clay 54

At Frankfort (57)—Switzer 28, Jackson 16, Townsend 6, Blythe 2, Vest 2, Moore 1.

Henry Clay (54)—Maloney 16, Pritchett 16, Smith 10, Marlowe 4, Adair 4, Camero 2, Nickels 2.

Henry Clay 10 20 34 54
Frankfort 8 24 42 57

Madison 45 Lex. Catholic 43

At Madison (45)—Chazout 12, Ferrell 12, Ford 11, Clay 7, Campbell 2.

Lex. Catholic (43)—Schwartz 12, Holland 6, McGinnis 5, A. Holloway 4, Wrennes 2, Lynch 2, K. Holloway 4.

Madison 8 20 36 45
Lex. Catholic 10 17 24 43

Berea 46 Anville 41

At Berea (46)—Cornelison 21, A. Taylor 3, Berry 3, R. Taylor 3, VanWinkle 7, Cleary 9, Ferris 2, M. Ferris 2.

Anville (41)—Parratt 22, McCowan 10, Nagler 8, Clemens 1.

Berea 10 22 36 46
Anville 16 23 37 41

Scott Co. 58 Harrison Co. 39

Scott County (58)—Hill 18, Patterson 7, Smith 6, Christopher 6, Lanzy 6, Parker 10, Rankin 2, Florence 1, Burdette 1, Matthews 2.

Harrison County (39)—Whitaker 13, Warner 3, Stephens 4, Carr 1, Conard 4, Fryman 2, Biddle 4, Kerns 3.

Scott Co. 8 14 18 29
Harrison Co. 13 22 37 49

Jessamine County 29

At Jessamine Co. (29)—Curtis 14, Lawson 2, Dinger 4, Rudnicke 3, Sanders 6.

Mercer Co. (49)—Hartow 9, R. Taylor 13, Buffin 2, Robinson 7, Stratton 6, C. Taylor 2.

Jessamine Co. 8 14 18 29
Mercer Co. 13 22 37 49

Knox Central 50 Middleboro 36

At Knox Central (50)—Wertz 27, Valentine 13, Walker 10.

Middleboro (36)—Buell 12, Harford 5, Soess 6, Baker 4, Hoskins 2, Barton 2.

Knox Central 12 24 36 50
Middleboro 15 27 36

Scott Co. 58 Harrison Co. 39

Scott County (58)—Hill 18, Patterson 7, Smith 6, Christopher 6, Lanzy 6, Parker 10, Rankin 2, Florence 1, Burdette 1, Matthews 2.

Harrison County (39)—Whitaker 13, Warner 3, Stephens 4, Carr 1, Conard 4, Fryman 2, Biddle 4, Kerns 3.

Scott Co. 8 14 18 29
Harrison Co. 13 22 37 49

Jessamine County 29

At Jessamine Co. (29)—Curtis 14, Lawson 2, Dinger 4, Rudnicke 3, Sanders 6.

Mercer Co. (49)—Hartow 9, R. Taylor 13, Buffin 2, Robinson 7, Stratton 6, C. Taylor 2.

Jessamine Co. 8 14 18 29
Mercer Co. 13 22 37 49

Knox Central 50 Middleboro 36

At Knox Central (50)—Wertz 27, Valentine 13, Walker 10.

Middleboro (36)—Buell 12, Harford 5, Soess 6, Baker 4, Hoskins 2, Barton 2.

Knox Central 12 24 36 50
Middleboro 15 27 36

Betsy Layne 56 McDowell 54

At Betsy Layne (56)—Surbis 15, Martin 16, Hamilton 12, Hall 4, Clark 4.

McDowell (54)—Grigg 24, Roberts 17, Martin 6, Reid 4, Howell 3.

Betsy Layne 21 33 44 54
McDowell 13 26 38 54

Jenkins 62 Fleming-Neon 31

At Jenkins (62)—Owlen 21, Mahan 16, Conis 14, Adams 6, Hartley 3, Williams 2.

Fleming-Neon (31)—Baxter 12, Brown 2, Quilan 2, Halt 2, Teckert 1.

Jenkins 9 27 47 62
Fleming-Neon 2 11 21 31

Ashland 55 Russell 50

At Russell (55)—Lynkins 19, Carroll 17, Idridge 6, Ward 4, Wilson 2, Lee 2.

Ashland (55)—Fish 18, Saylor 16, Mackay 10, Christian 8, Hartkins 5.

Russell 16 22 35 50
Ashland 13 25 38 55

Lewis County 58 Augusta 43

At Augusta (43)—Habermeil 11, D. Kason 9, Appelman 8, M. Kason 8, Hargett 6, Bach 4.

Lewis County (58)—Bond 21, Keyley 16, Hickle 13, Roe 4, James 4.

Augusta 7 18 33 43
Lewis County 11 29 34 58

Nancy 88 Burgin 79

At Nancy (88)—Hartfield 29, Miller 16, Claude 12, Bernhardt 13, Wilson 3, Vaughn 2, Young 2.

Burgin (79)—Sims 12, Noel 18, Dunn 16, B. Dunn 14, Monson 7, J. Sims 5, McKinley 1.

Nancy 28 44 66 88
Burgin 14 29 35 79

DO IT YOURSELF PLUMBING HEADQUARTERS

Believe it or not . . .

YOU can repair MOST of your own plumbing.

As prices continue to rise you should be aware that in most cases you, yourself can make that needed improvement or repair that leaky faucet. Let one of our experienced specialists show you how.

- Pipe custom cut and threaded
- We have those hard to find parts

RON V. DAY

HOME REPAIR CENTER

RQS. FOR PLUMBING REPAIR, PARTS AND SUPPLIES

206 E. Third St. Phone 254-6148

Free Customer Parking

HERBST TRUCK PARTS

HERBST TRUCK PARTS OPENS LEXINGTON STORE TO SERVE CENTRAL AND EASTERN KENTUCKY

AIR-O-MATIC Power Steering ALLIED EASTERN Universal Joints ANCHORLOK Spring Brakes BENDIX-WESTINGHOUSE Air Brakes BLACKHAWK Air &amp; Hydraulic Joints BORG-WARNER Clutches, Gears &amp; Drive Line Components BOSTON Air-Ride Seats &amp; Parts BOWER Roller Bearing BRAKE SHOES Exchanged or Re-lined CHICAGO-RAWHIDE Scoopbeds &amp; Speed-Slaves CLARK Transmission &amp; Gears	DETROIT HO-SPIN Tandem Lock Assys. EATON Carrier Assys. &amp; Parts ENGLER Hub-nucers &amp; Instruments EUCLOID Brake Parts FEDERAL-ROGUE Bearings &amp; Seals FIRST-ONE Axle Springs FOOTE Axle Shafts FULLER Transmission Gears &amp; Parts GREY-ROCK Brake Linings &amp; Hydraulic Brake Parts HENDRICKSON Suspensions &amp; Bearings (Exchange Working Beams) KYSOR Shafts &amp; Shaftwork KYSOR Shut-Down &amp; Alarm Systems	KYSOR Air Conditioner Assys., Parts &amp; Service LIPE-ROLLWAY Clutches &amp; Products MAXIBRAKE Assys. (New &amp; Exchange) MIDLAND-ROSS Air Brake Systems CONVERSE-WALKER-BOONERS MIDWEST Clutches Exchange PER LUX Driving Lights PERRY Water Filters &amp; Products ROCKWELL-STANDARD Carrier Assys. &amp; Parts ROCKWELL-STANDARD Brake &amp; Axle Parts SPICER Clutch Assys. (New &amp; Rebuilt)	SPICER Drive Line Parts &amp; Service SPICER Transmissions &amp; Gears (New &amp; Exchange) TECUMSEH Pumps &amp; Pliers (Flex &amp; Straight Tapping) TURNER-QUICK-START Kits &amp; Parts UNIVERSAL Truck Engine Heaters VELVAC Products &amp; Jack Alarms WEBBS Wheels, Brake Drums &amp; Suspension Parts WX Filters
--	---	---	---

HERBST TRUCK PARTS and EQUIPMENT INC.

814 North Limestone Lexington, Ky. 40505
(606) 254-5595

Compare Our Low Prices

- Asphalt Shingle Re-Roofing
- Built-Up Roof Work

Call Us For A Free Estimate!

We Are The Oldest Roofing Company In Lexington

J.D. HARPER & SONS

769 W. Short Street 252-1515